On and after the 75% Transition Date, the Board of Directors shall include two (2) persons appointed by Declarant and one (1) person elected by a majority vote of Class A Members ("Non-Declarant Director") at such meeting at which quorum is present, which Non-Declarant Member shall serve a term of one (1) year. Election for the non-Declarant Member may be held at a Special Election or Annual Meeting. Should the elected non-Declarant Director become deceased, resign, or otherwise be removed from the Board as a Director, the remaining Board Members may appoint an Owner to complete the non-Declarant Director's term until such time an election to elect a new non-Declarant member to the Board may be done. On and after the date on which the last Lot is sold to a non-Declarant Owner (the "Declarant Turnover Date"), the President of the Association will call a special election meeting of the Members (unless the turnover falls within thirty (30) days of an annual meeting) of the Association where the Members will elect one (1) Director for a three (3) year term, and two (2) Directors for a two (2) year term. The member obtaining the most votes will serve the three (3) year term and the remaining two (2) will serve a term of two (2) years. Upon expiration of the initial term of a Director elected by Members as part of the Declarant Turnover, his or her successors shall serve a term of two (2) years. An even number of Board Members is prohibited to avoid deadlocks or stalemates in the voting and/or approval process. Change to terms or number of Directors shall be done by Board resolution notwithstanding, terms must remain staggered for the purpose of continuity.

(c) Each Director, other than Directors appointed by Declarant, shall be a Member and resident, or in the case of corporate or partnership ownership of a Lot, a duly authorized agent or representative of the corporate or partnership Owner. Section 4.4. Removal of Directors for Cause. If a Director breaches such Director's duties hereunder or violates the terms of the Declaration, the Certificate, the Association Rules or these Bylaws, such Director may be removed by Declarant unless Declarant no longer has the right to appoint and remove Directors in accordance with Section 4.1 of these Bylaws, and then by a majority vote of the remaining Directors after Declarant's right to appoint and remove Directors has expired. No Director shall have any voting rights nor may such Director participate in any meeting of the Board of Directors at any time that such Director is delinquent in the payment of any Assessments or other charges owed to the Association. Each Board Member is expected to conduct him or herself in a manner that supports unity of effort and care on behalf of the Association. A Board Member who sows dissension or causes divisions in the Board making it difficult for the Board to work and communicate together in an effort to conduct business of the Association should be removed by the remaining Board Members to ensure the Board can promptly and effectively fulfill its day to day responsibilities as well as fulfill other fiduciary duties of the Board without hinderance or delay.

Section 4.5. Vacancies on Board of Directors. At such time as Declarant's right to appoint and remove Directors has expired or been terminated, if the office of any elected Director shall become vacant by reason of death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or otherwise, the remaining Directors, at a special meeting duly called for this purpose, shall choose a successor who shall fill the unexpired term of the directorship being vacated. If there is a deadlock in the voting for a successor by the remaining Directors, the one Director with the longest continuous term on the Board shall select the successor. At the expiration of the term of his position on the Board of Directors, the successor Director shall be re-elected or his successor shall be elected in accordance with these Bylaws.

Section 4.6. Removal of Directors by Members.
